IACS Registration Is Mandatory

All U.S. identification cardholders and installation pass holders and applicants in U.S. Army, Europe, except those leaving before Sept. 1, must register for the new Installation Access Control System. Sponsors do not need to be present for registration of family members. Those who fail to register will experience extreme delays when attempting to gain access to installations.

Registration hours are Mondays to Saturdays, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Patch Barracks Installation Access Control Office, building 2307. Applicants can now register at any time, just don't forget to bring your ID card with you. For more info call 430-4256/civ. 0711-680-4256.

Report Suspected Espionage Incidents

Community members can help prevent subversion and espionage by guarding against the collection efforts of foreign intelligence services. Watch for those who attempt to gain information through threats, coercion, bribery or trickery. Report incidents by calling the Stuttgart Military Intelligence Office, 421-2206/civ. 0711-729-2206.

New Mission Statement And Logo

United States Army, Europe, leaders have approved a new mission statement, vision, mission essential task list and logo as part of a plan to focus its role as the Army's expeditionary force in Europe. The new mission statement says "As a forward based land component, USAREUR demonstrates national resolve and strategic leadership by assuring stability and security, and leading joint and combined forces in support of the Combatant Commander."

The new logo, with the words "USAREUR, Freedom's Expeditionary Force, An Army Forward, Any Mission, Anywhere" replaces "On Point For The Nation," used by USAREUR since the mid-1990s.

SERVICES

Patch Thrift Shop Welcomes You

'Tis the season to be moving and the Patch Thrift Shop can lighten your outbound load and help with incoming needs too. The shop is located in the lower level of Washington Center and is open Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and the first Saturday of each month, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Consignments are always welcome and are accepted until 1 p.m.

The Thrift Shop is in need of a part-time assistant cashier (a paid position), as well as volunteers. All profits from sales go back into supporting the community, so come in, see what's new and get involved. For info call 430-5510/civ. 0711-680-5510.

Online Customs Briefing Saves Time

A new online customs briefing aims to make PCS moves smoother for those shipping household goods stateside this summer. Customers can read or download the online customs briefing, thereby spending less time in the customs office. They must print a statement off the Web site, sign it and take it to the customs office to avoid the in-office briefing. The Web site has a list of prohibited and restricted items. Some articles are prohibited outright and may not be shipped at all. For info visit www.hqusareur.army.mil/opm/briefing.htm.

HAZMAT Reuse Store Online

All non-NSN HAZMAT items normally purchased on the economy, such as insect repellant, propane gas (1.02 lb cylinders), varnish, paint, adhesive, enamel, silicone, sealing compounds and engine degreaser, are now available at the online HAZMAT Reuse Store. This is in addition to the regular stock of NSN items. Just go to www.6asgdol.stuttgart.army.mil/reuse/store.asp. Remember, unbeatable prices and free delivery to your door.

School Lunch Program Applications

The Community and Family Support Center, Army Community Service, is accepting applications for the Free and Reduced School Lunch Program for School Year 2003/04. Eligibility is based on income guidelines approved by Congress and published in the Federal Register each school year. Applicants must bring a copy of their orders listing dependents by name and proof of all household income to the Community and Family Support Center to determine eligibility. To make an appointment call 430-7176/civ. 0711-680-7176.

AFAS Assistance Available

The Air Force Aid Society is the official Air Force charity for Air Force members and their families. AFAS exists worldwide to provide assistance in the form of interest free loans, grants or a combination of both for basic living expenses, emergency leave, essential car repair, fire or other disasters. For more info call MSgt Wood or TSgt Dixon at 430-8459/civ. 0711-680-8459 or e-mail dl6thASGMSS/DPMPs@cmtymail.6asg.army.mil.

RB Thrift Shop Your Community Store

The Robinson Barracks Thrift Shop has a nice selection of small furniture, clothing, bedding, kitchen items, older German collectables and even a German farm wagon.

This is an ideal time to consign your extra or no longer needed items. Especially needed are transformers of all sizes, modern 220V household items, CDs and videos. The RB Thrift Shop does not charge a withdrawal fee. Donations are always needed and greatly appreciated. Drop off inside building 196 entrances day or night.

The RB Thrift Shop is open Fridays and Saturdays, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Consignments are accepted until 1 p.m. For info call 0711-854-242.

The abandoned vehicles are: green Mercedes, license SP-2004/XL-1041, chassis WDB12324310013717, and gray BMW, license SU-3898, chassis WBAAA710009156816. Vehicles not removed by August 8 will be destroyed.

MLB Envoys Visit Patch

Each year, Major League Baseball sends "envoys" to different parts of the world in an effort to generate increased interest in the sport and to refine the skills of youth currently in baseball. This year, Stuttgart Youth Services Sports is privileged to have envoys coming to our community July 21 and 22. The Stuttgart Envoy program will be a free 2-day skills clinic on Husky Field aimed at sharpening batting, bunting, fielding, base running/stealing tactics. Space is limited, with a maximum of 60 participants 11 to 18 years old. Sign up by calling YS Sports at 431-2616/civ. 07031-15-616.

Native American Pow Wow on Panzer

Are you interested in Native American culture? Have you ever wondered what happens during a traditional Pow Wow? The Equal Opportunity Office is sponsoring the 6th Area Support Group Gathering of Cultures Pow Wow July 26 to 27 on Panzer Local Training Area 3. The two-day event includes workshops on Native American crafts, regalia, food, legends, songs and dances and traditional Native American legends shared around the campfire.

The Pow Wow is free and open to everyone. Pack up your barbeque grills, food and tents and camp the entire weekend. Fire pits are available. No alcohol will be permitted and parents need to supervise children at all times. For info or to RSVP call David Lee at 421-2468/civ. 0711-729-2468 or e-mail koga@cherokeenation.zzn.com.

Auditions For Soldiers' Chorus

Could you be the next USAREUR Idol? The U.S. Army, Europe, Soldiers' Chorus has immediate openings for male and female vocalists, keyboard players, electric guitarists, bass guitarists, drummers and audio technicians. The chorus performs over 150 shows a year throughout Europe, electrifying audiences with its mixture of pop, rock, R&B, country, and jazz. If you sing, dance, or play an instrument, you might qualify to join this team of talented entertainers.

For info visit www.1perscom.army.mil/BAND. Soldiers E-6 and below interested in auditioning can call 379-5034/7834/civ. 06202-80-5034/7834.

Kelley Construction Slows Traffic

Due to optical communication cable installation, digging and trenching will continue on Kelley Barracks near building B3312 past the shoppette entrance and HHC building B3384 for approximately two weeks and in the lawn area between buildings B3306 and B3307 through the German Kantine parking lot. The parking lot will be partially closed during this time and traffic and pedestrian flow will be reduced for approximately four weeks. Work begins in late June. We apologize in advance for any inconvenience this project may cause.

Did You Know...

Did you know that only individuals assigned or attached TDY to the 6th Area Support Group, valid ID cardholders, federal employees, retirees or sponsored family members may be issued a handicapped parking permit? Local nationals must obtain their handicap decals from the German authorities.

Also, all personnel who have been issued handicap decals must register with the Installation Support Manager and abide with designated time limitations for handicap parking areas.

To learn more about this policy visit www.stuttgart.army.mil. Click on "Community" then "Policy Letters."

Hash House Harriers Make Runs Fun

Stuttgart Wurst Hash House Harriers, a local, international (primarily German-American), most eccentric running/walking club, combines fun, trail, and friendship in a different interesting location every two weeks. The HHH is a more social version of Hare and Hounds, where you join the pack of hounds (runners) to chase down the trail set by the hare or hares (other runners), then gather together for a little social activity. All are welcome, young and old, fast or slow. The only prerequisite to hashing is a sense of humor.

The next run is scheduled for June 29. For more info call Jim Condon at 0711-3655383, e-mail jfcondon3@yahoo.com or Andreas Holzwarth at 0172-954-0361 or e-mail andreasholzwarth@yahoo.de.

Protect your home movies. Don't let time damage the tapes that hold all of your family's memories. Let me transfer your home movies to DVD. I can transfer VHS, Beta, Hi8mm, and 16mm films, plus 35mm slides to DVD. Even if you don't currently own a DVD player, you can still protect the memories by putting them on a more stable medium than tape. For info call Terry at 0711-887-9197, or tcv1996@hotmail.com.
